

MEDIUM BIO

Victoria Malenfant is a French vocalist based in Montreal. Born in Paris, she spent her childhood in France but it's in Montreal where her family will settle down. She discovered her love for the stage at a young age through theater and went on to continue through singing and music. She participated in the two musicals produced by her school, Le chant de Saint-Carmen de la Main (Daniel Bélanger) and Company (Stephen Sondheim), and continued after graduating with Footloose by Productions 90'.

In September 2022, she won the first place of the Emerging Artist Contest of the Sutton Jazz Fest, and also co-composes the music for the circus and magic show La Reine des Rats by Productions Old Charlotte. She performs regularly in Montreal while working on her first album.
