

SHORT BIO

Victoria Malenfant is a French vocalist based in Montreal. She discovered her love for the stage at a young age through theater and went on to continue through singing and music, participating in the musicals in her school. She continues in university in Jazz studies, and also performs in Footloose by Productions 90'.

In September 2022, she won the first place of the Emerging Artist Contest of the Sutton Jazz Fest, and also co-composes the music for the circus and magic show La Reine des Rats by Productions Old Charlotte. She performs regularly in Montreal while working on her first album.